ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

NEW QUARTERS

At last we have moved into our

New Store Room

on the East Side of the Public Square near the National Bank. We will be glad to have our customers and
friends call and see us

Trusts and combinations are forming for the purpose of upholding higher prices
but the only combination
we believe in is the combination of quality, quantity,

Way Down Pri- ces and Honest Methods

all of which constitute the foundation upon which our business is rapidly growing
It is evident from our constantly increasing business that the trade appreciate

OUR PRICES,
OUR GOODS AND
OUR WAY OF DOING BUSINESS

This fact has encouraged us to seek larger quarters that we might have room to display our large stock and accommodate our increasing trade.

We are very grateful to the general public for their very kind patronage, hope you will come to see us at our new quarters where you will find a large and well selected stock of

Dry Goods, Carpets, Notions, Boots, Shoes, Clothing and Hats
at Reasonable prices.

LOGAN DRY GOODS COMPANY

B. F. Walter, dentist, office over Blue Grass Grocery, Lancaster.

We quote Lexington Cream flour 55c per sack. Fuller & Simpson.

The Proctor Knott cigar leads 'em all in easy drawing and fragrant smoke

Buy International Chicken Food from T. Currey. It will make your hens lay.

The Kay Peas will confer the rank of Page upon two or three candidates tomorrow night.

Popular prices prevail at the Hawthorn entertainments next week. 15, 25 and 35 cents.

I will occupy room adjoining Opera House entrance, as soon as completed. B. F. Walter, dentist.

The Opera House is plastered and now complete. Don't fail to attend the minstrels Saturday night.

The Logan Dry Goods Co. are receiving full line Carpets, Mattings and Rugs. See their line and prices before you buy.

Money to Loan. Any amounts from $100 to $1,000, to suit borrower. Terms easy. J. C. HEMPHILL.

Jim Pearce is making a tip top marshal. The nights are quiet, and few drunks stagger the streets. Jim is all right and knows his business.

Notice to Taxpayers. Come in and pay your taxes at once, as we are preparing to advertise delinquents, and same will be done in a few days. J. B. Sanders. S. G. C.

The San Francisco Minstrels are among the best on the road, and seldom play small towns. They appear here Saturday night and will have a crowded house.

Rev. George Dunlap will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at 7 p. m. A great many of his old Lancaster friends are glad of the opportunity of hearing him.

We now have on display our superb line of spring gingham. Great care was taken in selecting them, and we know you will not find a prettier line anywhere in central Kentucky. Call and see them before the stock is broken. J. JOSEPH.

New Goods. I have opened a nice assortment of Staple and Fancy Groceries in the house lately occupied by Mr. Ballou which I propose to sell at low prices for cash or produce. Give me a call before buying elsewhere for I think I can make it to your advantage to buy from me. Phone 35. W. B. Ball.

The Western Stars give an entertainment which is refined, entertaining and highly enjoyable. They appear at Court House Friday, the 26th, under auspices of the W. C. T. U. Admission only 35 and 50 cents which is a reduction of the prices usually charged by this troupe. Secure a seat at McRoberts.

Will Burn More Brick. Mr. R. L. Dillehay was here Tuesday making arrangements to burn several kilns of brick. As soon as the weather opens up, he will begin work at the same place where he burned last season. He turns out a splendid brick and understands the business.

The Western Stars. This celebrated company has been engaged by the Lancaster Woman's Christian Temperance Union to give a concert in this city, at Court House, next week, Friday, January 26. The company consists of vocalists, harpist, readers, Caveny the crayon artist, and other artists of wide reputation. They bring the best press notices, and recommendations that insure an evening of delightful entertainment. Reserved seats at McRoberts drug store. Admission 35 and 50 cents.

Belshazzar's Feast. The Knights of Pythias lodge, at last meeting, decided to give an entertainment for the benefit of the lodge, and upon the suggestion of Ed. Bishop a committee was appointed to look into the advisability of presenting Belshazzar's Feast, an entertainment similar to Esther, the Queen, which Lancaster people gave with so great success a number of years ago. It will require sixty to seventy-five people to give the entertainment, and a number of singers who know what they are doing, but as Lancaster has a great number of excellent voices it will be no trouble in securing the people. The committee has been quite successful so far, and it is safe to say the entertainment will be pushed to a successful end.

Proctor Knott cigars are best.

T. Currey will pay highest price in cash or produce for eggs.

Ask for the Proctor Knott cigar. It's the best smoke you can get.

Full line Carpets, Mattings and Rugs at The Logan Dry Goods Co.

I am standing a nice Jersey Bull at $1.00 cash. [m25tf] R. L. ELKIN.

Admission to Minstrels Saturday night 35c. Reserved seats 50c at Stormes Drug store.

Seals Wanted. Pair of second-hand wagon scales. Address R. L. Dillehay, Danville, Ky.

Hawthorn Sisters at Opera House Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Fine new stock of accordions and harps, also violin, banjo and guitar strings at J. C. Thompson's.

I will occupy room adjoining Opera House entrance as soon as completed. B. F. Walter, dentist, Lancaster.

The plastering has been finished and the Opera House is now in shape to receive the public. The management now insures comfort to patrons.

Hotel to Open This Week. Mr. Fissinger tells us the New Garard will open for guests this week, positively.

Glasses Lost. Between Cemetery and Dr. Herring's, steel frame glasses. Reward for return to this office.

The Cartoon work of J. Franklin Caveny will more than compensate you for the little amount required to hear the Western Stars January 26.

Lost. Between Lancaster and Hickman, Sunday night, 38 calibre Smith & Wesson revolver. Finder will be rewarded by leaving at this office.

The Hawthorn Sisters have the best entertainment at popular prices now on the road. They are spoken of highly by the press everywhere they have been.

Letcher Owsley is getting up a negro minstrel show to be composed of home talent. Letch is a first-class burnt cork artist and as good as any nigger we ever saw on the stage.

Many Cattle Expected. Stockmen are looking for a big lot of cattle at the pens next Monday. There is a big demand for heifers and steers, and we are told many buyers will be here that day.

Williams Selected. As stated in last issue, at the meeting of the Councilmen the selection of an attorney resulted in a dog-fall, the mayor refusing to cast the deciding vote. They met again Friday night and Mayor Kinnaird voted for W. I. Williams, giving him the place.

The manager of the Opera House requests us to say that the Hawthorn Sisters give a show that any lady can attend, and is perfectly clean in every respect. They bring splendid recommendations. THE RECORD has noticed many nice references to them by neighboring newspapers.

The RECORD's good friend, R. L. Cochran, writes from Peabody, Kansas, to tell the Lancaster people of the abilities of J. Franklin Caveny, the cartoonist to appear with the Western Stars at the Court House the 26th. Mr. Cochran is personally acquainted with Caveny, and says he is a wonder.

Summoned to Frankfort. Jno. M. Duncan, Capt. Herndon, Squire Parsons, G. M. Patterson, Jesse Sanders, S. S. Dickerman, Jno. Boner, Jno. McQuerry, Dr. Kinnaird and a number of others have been summoned to appear before the contest board at Frankfort tomorrow. The summons were issued by the republican side of the case.

Have You A Bible? The American Bible Society asks THE RECORD to say that they will gladly furnish bibles free to any parties who are not able to buy them, and if anyone knows of parties without the scriptures, if they will report the fact, they will be given books. The bibles are deposited with J. C. Thompson, the jeweler, in Lancaster.

Theatre Hat Law. Some member of the legislature has introduced a bill making it unlawful for ladies to wear high hats at theatres or public gatherings. If this bill becomes a law, those who have suffered from the hat nuisance will rise up and call the author blessed. Unless something of the kind is done, patrons of such places should demand a return of their money if compelled to sit behind a washing tub hat and not be able to enjoy the entertainment. People pay to see the show, and not to see some gimlet headed girl's tower ing headgear.

Ladies shoes, the best and prettiest in town, at J. JOSEPH.

B. F. Walter, dentist office over Blue Grass Grocery, Lancaster.

The Western Stars will be greeted by a crowded house Friday, the 26.

We are headquarters for field and garden seeds. Fuller & Simpson.

Big parade Saturday at noon by the celebrated San Francisco Minstrels.

New stock of plain gold wedding rings and diamonds at J. C. Thompson's.

The Masonic lodge meets next Tuesday evening, at which time several petitions are due.

Boy wanted. To deliver goods, work in store, or do any other work needed. Apply at this office.

Lovers of music are looking forward with much pleasure to the coming of the Western Stars on the 26th.

County Court Monday. Next Monday will be county court day, and a big crowd is looked for.

We have some very pretty dark percales that will close out at nine cents. This price lasts 'til stock is closed. See them. J. JOSEPH.

The long distance (Bell) telephone has been placed in McRoberts store, where a sound-proof booth is provided and everything conveniently arranged.

Fresh home-made bread every day. Fresh cakes of every description. Meals served at all hours. Oysters in any style. Leave your orders for reception refreshments. R. ZIMMER.

Big San Francisco Minstrels at the Opera House next Saturday night. Twenty artists, big band and splendid show. Secure a seat, as the house will be crowded.

I will sell my old house, divided in two parts, on Dayville street to highest bidder, party to move it as soon as possible from the lot. Sale to take place at 2 o'clock Monday, court day. J. C. Thompson.

The Hawthorn Sisters at the Opera House next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. They give a high-class musical, specialty and vaudeville show which is sure to please. Admission only 25 and 35 cents; balcony 50c. Reserved seats at Stormes'

The board of supervisors is in session again this week and will probably complete their labors tomorrow. They have heard all the evidence wanted and are now "figuring up," as one of them said. It is quite probable that many pieces of property will be raised.

Speaks Well of Them. Kingston (N. Y.) Freeman:—The San Francisco minstrels, which were at Liscomb's opera house on Saturday night, gave one of the best minstrel shows ever presented in this city. The jokes and songs were entirely new and catchy. There was a large house and every one who witnessed the show was highly pleased with the many attractions.

Work For Everybody. If any fellow is lounging around Lancaster now, it's his own fault, for there is work for every one that wants it, or rather for every one that will work as he should. Of course the time killer, the smart Alex, and the fellow who knows more about how his employer should conduct the business is out of a job, but those who will buckle down and attend to business are engaged, and will always be able to find a job.

Change at the Blue Grass. The managers of the Blue Grass grocery stores in Kentucky believe in moving their employes about, and consequently made a change in their Lancaster store this week. Mr. Grubbs is sent to take charge at Harrodsburg, and the Lancaster store is now in charge of Miss Gore, a young lady of rare business qualifications and abilities to manage the store. Mr. Grubbs leaves today for his new location. He has made many friends during his stay here, and all regret to see him leave. He is a business man out and out, and the store greatly increased in popularity under his management. We wish him well in his new location. His family will join him in a few weeks.

Big Minstrel Show. The famous San Francisco Minstrels, consisting of twenty artists and a big band, will hold the boards at the Garard Opera House Saturday night the 26th. This troupe was traveling in the south, and were scared off their route by small pox in towns which they were to visit. They would take no chances on going near the disease, so changed their route. The show is one of the strongest on the road, and brings testimonials far ahead of other similar organizations. Watch for the big parade at noon Saturday, and go to Stormes store and have a seat reserved. Owing to the circumstances, the price of admission will be only 25 cents for balcony, 35 general admission and 50 for reserved seats.

DEPLORABLE AFFAIR.

Col. D. G. Colson and Ethelbert Scott Fight at Frankfort. Three Men Killed, Four Wounded.

Col. David G. Colson, of Middlesboro, shot and killed Lieut. Ethelbert D. Scott, of Somerset, and Luther Demaree, of Shelbyville, in the Capital Hotel, Frankfort, at half-past twelve Tuesday. Harry McEwen, of Louisville, and Charles Julian, of Frankfort, were badly wounded by stray shots. Report says Scott and Colson met near the desk in the hotel and renewed a quarrel which occurred at Camp Shipp, Anniston, Ala., last year, at which time Scott shot and wounded Colson so badly that he has been a paralytic ever since. The shooting was preceded by no loud talking and began without a moment's warning. There were probably 200 people in the hotel lobby at the time. Fully twenty shots were fired. Those in the hotel lobby made a break for the dining room and all avenues of escape. Bullets whizzed about the lobby and left their marks upon the furniture. Scott was killed, and two bystanders, Luther W. Demaree, of Shelbyville, and Charles Julian, of Frankfort, also met death. Capt. Ben B. Golden, of Barbourville, was probably fatally wounded. Harry McEwen, of Louisville, was slightly wounded. Scott's body showed that he was shot four times. One ball struck the right side of the head, penetrating the brain. Another passed through the lower part of the right lung. A third struck the neck, just beneath the chin, severing the main artery. A fourth struck the right hip. Demaree was shot but once, the bullet passing directly through the heart. Julian was shot through both legs, the wounds being above and below the knee. One bullet severed a large artery and he died in about forty minutes of hemorrhage before a doctor could be secured.

The killing was the result of a renewal of a feud between Colson and Scott which grew up between them while in the army last year. Demaree and Golden were bystanders and were shot by accident. Colson was shot in the left arm below the elbow and painfully wounded. He is in a weak and nervous condition from his fight with Scott last year. Ethelbert Scott is a nephew of Gov. Bradley and Mrs. Dr. Mays, of Paint Lick, this county. He has spent much time in Lancaster and is well-known here. He was thirty years old and a very handsome and bright man. Col. Colson is a brother of Mrs. W. R. Moss, of this city, and has a number of friends and acquaintances here. Both Scott and Colson are republicans, and the trouble had no connection whatever with the election contests now being tried in Frankfort.

Back in The Old Corner.

From the time since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, the corner of the Public Square, next to National Bank, has been looked upon as for the sole use and benefit of a drug store, and when a pain strikes a fellow he naturally breaks in that direction. "Ross" Burnside was located there from the time the waters of the flood receded till some twenty years ago, when Lillard & Co. moved in. Mr. R. E. McRoberts was the next to take possession and he has since held forth there, save when the buildings were destroyed by fire. Last Saturday the new building was moved into again by Mr. McRoberts. The room is larger than it was originally, and was built under the direction of Mr. McR. to be especially adapted to his wants as a drug store. The front is made almost entirely of plate glass, giving an abundance of light, while the rear windows will furnish splendid ventilation in summer. A large room in the rear is quite convenient for the handling of his large stocks of paints, oil, lead, varnishes, etc. The second story is used for wall papers, and is especially convenient to display the goods. It is well filled with all the latest styles and all grades and qualities which can be easily shown to customers. The store is splendidly arranged for comfort and convenience, the long rows of shelves and show cases being far enough apart to admit persons looking at everything without crowding. The jewelry department takes up one corner and is splendidly arranged. The prescription department is quite unique and arranged so that the druggist is free from being cramped when compounding medicines, which work is the most particular a man is called upon to do. Mr. McRoberts came to Lancaster in 1883, and by careful attention to business, polite attention to his customers, and honest dealings has enjoyed a splendid patronage, and has the respect and confidence of the community at large. He is progressive, always takes active part in promoting any enterprise brought up, and contributes liberally toward all worthy causes. He is a citizen that will benefit a community, and not a mere figure head. Mr. McRoberts has been in the business world long enough to know the value of printer's ink, which fact is attested by his large standing ad, which is always in THE RECORD telling its readers what he has to offer the public.

No smoke better than the Proctor Knott cigar.
